

We need more regulations when it comes to corporations owning monopolies in the media business, we most certainly do not need less! I also think the bringing together newspaper and television news networks under the roof of a single corporation will severely diminish the quality of both mediums content. Make the right decision and do not take away any further regulations on corporations then there are already.